Opis produktu

GoTown is a card game of real-estate ego that invites a bit of (un)friendly competition.

Each player tries to build a five-story tower first. Floors are made of two floor cards placed side-by-side.

It's totally okay to steal or destroy other player's stories, among other special actions. So protect your construction with a guard dog, play the donut food truck to send everyone on a break, and watch out! You are not the only one reaching for the sky...
